Authentic Voices of Teaching and Learning in Education

Series Editors

Darrell Hucks, Keene State College

Authentic Voices of Teaching and Learning seeks to make much needed space in the scholarly literature for Birth-16 plus educators to examine and share their lived experiences as daily practitioners. This book series will include a range of topics in the field of education; with a primary focus on lifting the voices of historically marginalized teachers and students of color, in various Birth-16 educational settings. The series seeks to enhance the overall achievement outcomes across our educational system.
